Re: State of Maine Toxic Chemical Requirements Applicable to Apparel Items

To whom it may concern:

Delta Apparel, Inc. has established a comprehensive product safety program designed to comply with all applicable United States products safety laws, regulations and standards, as well as applicable state requirements. Please be advised that Delta Apparel, Inc. has no reason to believe that any of the products offered for sale in its Delta Activewear Catalog contain any of the following chemicals in amounts above the thresholds set forth in the state of Maine's toxic chemical requirements applicable to apparel items:

- Arsenic,
- Cadmium,
- Mercury,
- DEHP, DBP, DEP,
- Formaldehyde, HBCD, and Deca BDE,
- Bisphenol A (BPA) Nonylphenols and nonylphenol ethoxylates (NPs and NPEOs),
- Benzylbutyl phthalate (BBP),
- Dibutyl phthalate (DBP),
- Diethyl phthalate (DEP) and di-(2-ethylhexyl) phthalate (DEHP),
- PFOS and its salts.
